

Maple Grove, MN

Speaker's City, State

United States

Country

PCA MISSION STATEMENT

The Painting Contractors Association serves the coating and wall covering industry with standards, education, training, advocacy, and best practices essential to member success.

SPEAKER BIO

Jason is the founder of Paris Painting, an 8 figure Residential Repaint company in the Twin Cities of Minnesota. Jason operates this business at the board level while spending most of his time investing in and scaling painting businesses through Aleph Holdings, investing in the development and building of multi-housing real estate, and volunteering with the PCA.

Jason lives with this wife and 4 children (soon to be 5) and enjoys running stupidly long trail runs.

TOPICS (customization available upon request):

- Failing Foward - Describing my 10+ years of constant failures, and why that's a good thing
- Millenial Culture - 3 counter intuitive ideologies we have utilited having an office of nearly all millentials and producing an 8 figure topline
- Spreadsheets - A deep dive history of spreadsheets, and their practical applications to running a residential repaint business
- Time Crunch - Do you have more to do than you haev time to do it? Welcome to the rest of your life. Practical time and priority management exercises and tips.
- Principles of Innovation and Advancement - Starting with a niche enthiasm of keybaord we discuss iterative progress and how those concepts apply to the next decade of Painting